01 We start by asking residents and the 04 wider community what they need, want and what changes they want to see Even when we see positive results, we constantly evaluate and develop our work... 02 We then develop a plan on 03 how we can help to enable and empower projects, Together with you and our programmes and services to resources and skills we empower benefit individuals and the you to realise this plan wider community